Detailed Action

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 10/20/2005 has been entered. Claims 1, 2, and 7-11 are pending and allowable.

Reasons for Allowance

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:
- With regard to independent claim 1, as the closest reference in record, Nakayama et al (JP 2-046442A) discloses an optical storage medium comprising: a recording layer formed on the first substrate to store first information as being reproducible with irradiation of a laser beam; a reflective layer formed on the recording layer; a second transparent substrate, the laser beam being incident to the second substrate in reproduction; and a bonding layer provided between the first and the second substrates, the first and second substrates being bonded to each other by the bonding layer via the reflective layer, the bonding layer being made of ultraviolet-hardened resin; but fails to show that the bonding layer includes at least one type of photochromic dye, to store second information on the bonding layer, the second information being visible through the second transparent substrate when the photochromic dye is colored by being exposed to light of a first specific wavelength different from a wavelength of the laser beam, the photochromic dye thus colored remaining unchanged against the laser beam.

- Applicant asserts that this invention provides an optical storage medium having a visible and rewritable information layer (Specification, p. 2).

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
